Making your product stand out

Maximise the potential of your product with a wide variety of branding opportunities and optional extras. Over the next few pages we have highlighted all of these options available for you.

Make your diary truly your own with blocking or engraving, achieving a desirable personalisation. All these things add more to your product and provide a memorable customer experience, adding value to the end user.

All optional extras offer outstanding value for money. You will find that the results are superb and make your product stand out ensuring they are something people will love to keep and to use.

Create a product you have always wanted!

DigiFlex printing

Using our DigiFlex printing technology you are able to have stunning single or full colour images and logo designs on co-ordinating or contrasting cover colours. By utilising High Definition UV digital print technologies, DigiFlex printing produces photographic quality with rich colour tone and depth. It also has the added benefit of being flexible so your images will not have hairline fractures or picture splitting.

Works with our bookbound Brandhide & Leathertex

We have a selection of Diaries using these materials.

Blocking

Personalise your diary cover either with your logo or a chosen design. One of the popular methods for this is blocking. This technique is available either as blind embossing (no colour) or foil blocking with one of the many available colours. Please contact us for more details.

Year dates

These are the standard year date options available for you. Choose the style that best complements your overall diary look and feel.

Pens and pencils

Promotional pens and pencils add quality to your diary or notebook, and help the user to get organised. Please contact us for details.

Pen loops

Add some practicality to your product with a pen loop. It can complement your overall branding and bring an added quality feel to the product.

Inserts

Companion Inserts are handy as they can make your every day life more manageable! They are utilised mainly with pocket diaries, and can be used with your diary insert and cover. Choose from notebooks, address books, and to-do-lists.

Pockets

Enhance your diary experience even further by adding a handy document pocket. This is a convenient tool for storing away tickets, receipts or other loose notes.

Ribbons

Go for a luxury feel with diary and notebook ribbons. They come in various colours and can be printed according to your needs. These are standard in our bookbound diaries.

Corners

By using metal diary corners you will achieve a more traditional style for your diary, also adding durability. Choose from many finishes and colours.

Printed wraps

Promotional wraps deliver the end user a unique product experience when unwrapping the product. We can apply your branding, a personal message or a campaign 'call to action' onto the wrap. Printed in full colour, they give your notebook or diary covers a luxurious look.

Packaging

When you want your product to truly stand out then present it in bespoke packaging. We also offer many off the shelf options to choose from.

Advertising pages

The majority of our diary customers include advertising pages to enhance their diaries. These can be used, for example, to raise your brand awareness, for providing key contact details, mission statements or calls to action.

Bespoke diaries

Bespoke diaries take your promotional diary concept to a whole new level.

Whether you require a special cover material, a specific colour or a full colour printed cover, you will find we have the options available for you. We can also offer full custom print of the inner pages and layouts. Create layouts from scratch to match your branding, add your own pages and take control of the content.

With bespoke diaries the options are endless!

Minimum order quantities apply,
4000 pocket or 2000 desk diaries.
